Talking about our clothing

5-10 minutes

When we talk about our clothing, we use the phrase "I am wearing..."

When we ask a question about clothing we use the questions: "What are you wearing?"

Notice that in a list after each clothing item there is a comma (.). The word "and" comes before the last item in the list.

* "a" is used for singular clothing items

For example:

One clothing item:

- I am wearing a t-shirt.
- I am wearing a blouse.
- I am wearing pants.
- I am wearing shoes.

Two clothing items:

- I am wearing a dress and shoes.
- I am wearing a swim suit and a hat.
- I am wearing a suit and a tie.
- I am wearing jeans and a long sleeve shirt.

More than two clothing items:

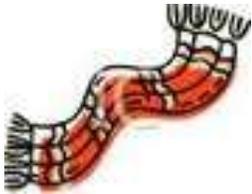

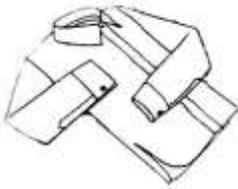

- I am wearing a hat, a t-shirt, and shorts.
- I am wearing jeans, a shirt, and a belt.
- I am wearing pants, socks, and gloves.
- I am wearing a dress, a hat, and shoes.
